

Contents

Preface	11
---------------	----

I

MOYA ALIYA MALAMUSI, Chileka Akaning'a and his travels	19
DONALD HOPKINS, Chicago Smallpox in history. A contribution to pre-colonial history in Africa	43
GIORGIO ADAMO, Rome Music – body – movement. An “African” perspective applied to the analysis of South Italian dances	49

II

ALBERT SSEMPEKE (†), Kampala Autobiographical note by a court musician	73
SARAH SEKINTU, Kampala Buganda's history according to oral tradition	77
MALIYA MOYA MALAMUSI, Chileka Zopeka ndi zochitika – Fiction and non-fiction	93
KAYOMBO KACHINYEKA, Manyinga Konkha vya vanda – Search for the Hidden. Luchazi culture in historical perspective	103
MOSES YOTAMU, Kabompo Chiyao Chieftainship and Initiation Ceremonies. A field report from Chief Makanjila's village, Lake Malawi	121
PANCHO GUEDES, Lisbon Lomwe initiation masks. Description of seven examples from the collection of Dori and Pancho Guedes with an introduction	153

III

MOYA ALIYA MALAMUSI, Chileka Musical bows in South-East Africa	163
WILLIAM UMBIMA (†), Nairobi Art in music: Eastern, Central, and Southern Africa	179
STANLEY GLASSER, London The condition of decay in contemporary West European “classical” music	187
ARTUR SIMON, Berlin Nubian music in the Northern Sudan and the Southern Egypt. Research and recordings from 1973 and 2003	195
DAVID EVANS, Memphis Patterns of reinterpretation in African-American music of the United States	207
THEODORE ALBRECHT, Kent African, autobiographical, and earlier operatic elements in Scott Joplin’s Treemonisha	215

IV

RUTH M. STONE, Bloomington Inscribing history and culture in the Woi epic. Migration of the Kpelle people, performance, and the Kingdom of Mali	243
KENICHI TSUKADA, Hiroshima Asafo and fɔntɔmfrɔm as indices of social sentiments among the Fante (Ghana)	251
GEORGE T. NURSE, London Pre-colonial colonialism in Central and Southern Africa	273

GEORGE FORTUNE, Mynydd Isa
Aspects of life among the Shawasha of pre-Rhodesian days.
A selection from a manuscript by Simon Tawoneyi	287
MITCHEL STRUMPF, Dar es Salaam
African music history until the start of Independence and the history of some other world music traditions: a design for a course of study of African history, anthropology, and ethnomusicology	311
Contributors	349
Contents of DVD	359
Tabula Gratulatoria	369